

I live in Indiana which currently has a very strong telephone privacy law on the books. It is working very well and we really like it. We have fewer calls from unwanted sellers. It has improved our time at home.

My family is asking you to please consider drafting your laws and regulations in such a manner that would not supersede our state laws. Our state officials have worked hard to get our laws to this point and we would like to maintain them.

Thank you.... Frank DeMike